A DAY'S DOINGS IN POLICE COURT

James Sticker, who was recently held for investigation on account of the police believing that he knew where Anderson Grace was to be found, was given a severe lecture by Judge Andrade in police court Saturday morning and sentenced to six days imprisonment for failing to pay his fine for being drunk on July 22. At the time that Sticker was found guilty of being drunk, Judge Andrade gave him a chance to get out and make enough money to pay his fine of $4, telling him to report this week.

When his name was called Sticker was absent, but an officer was sent out to find him and bring him in.

When Sticker appeared before the court he stated that he was unable to pay his fine and asked that he be given still longer time to get the $4. Judge Andrade did not see it in the same light, as he had given him nearly a month to make good his word that he would pay.

Sticker tried to convince the court that four dollars looked as big to him as four million did at the present time, and promised if he was allowed to go this time that he would be on hand next Saturday to pay his fine. Taking his past conduct into consideration, Judge Andrade decided that he could not give Sticker any more time to keep his word.

Higashi, an all round bad egg, as Attorney Lightfoot called him, was fined $25 and costs for assaulting a Chinese with an empty box. Higashi claimed that he was drunk at the time and did not know that he was doing anything wrong, but as he forfeited his bail of $25 earlier in the week the court decided that another $25 would be just about right for his actions.

Tony Correa, who attempted to strike an officer while being brought to the receiving station in the patrol wagon, was fined $15 and costs.

Wat Ging, for having a dog that was a menace to the residents in his section of the city, was fined $10 and costs.

The rest of the cases on the calendar were continued.

ONE CHANCE TO LOSE.

"Now that the Democrats are crowing over their prospects of winning the Congressional elections," said Representative Butler of Pennsylvania, the other day, "I am reminded of what good old Ike Hill, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the House, used to say on the eve of an election. Ike was a Democrat, through and through, but he was a philosophical Democrat.

"When anybody asked him how he thought the vote would go he would invariably reply:

"By gosh! I think we've got 'em if they don't buy us off.'"—Popular Magazine.

AT THE FIRST TRY.

"What do you think of my doughnuts, George?"

"Dear, you're a wonder!"

"Do you really think so, darling?"

"I certainly do. Scientists have been trying for years to produce artificial rubber, and here you do it first!"

HE WOULDN'T STAY BOUGHT.

A guest was expected for dinner and Bobby had received 5 cents as the price of his silence during the meal.

He was as quite as a mouse until, dis- from his pocket, and, rolling it across covering that his favorite dessert was the table, exclaimed: "Here's your being served, he could no longer curb nickle, mamma. I'd rather talk." Suc- his enthusiasm. He drew the coin cess.

Exclusive Features of Our REGAL OXFORDS

Heel Hug—Regal Oxfords fit snugly at the heel—never chafe or cut—because they are made on special Oxford lasts.

Ankle Fit—Regal Oxfords fit smoothly and evenly around the ankle, whereas ordinary low-cuts, made on high-shoe lasts, sag and gape at the ankle.

Custom Instep—The patented, two-part REGAL FORM Lasts, on which Regal Shoes are made, are removed from the finished Regal Shoes in sections. This permits the instep or "waist" of the shoes to be made small and snug.

Quarter-sizes—In addition to the usual half and full sizes, Regals come in one-quarter and three-quarter sizes in between. This double number of fittings insures an exact fit for every foot.

Custom Styles—Regal Oxfords reproduce the latest, correct custom styles, not found in other ready-to-wear shoes until the following season.

And yet our Regals cost you no more than ordinary shoes!
